Firemen's Show Will Be for Public

Convention Parade Will Start Downtown at 2 p. m. Saturday

At their meeting last night to put the finishing touches on plans for the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen's Convention, members of the committee decided to open their big show in the municipal auditorium, Thursday night, to firemen and their friends.

"We felt that the public would want to join the volunteers in enjoying the show," said Secretary Fred Harder, "and decided to make the affair public. A nominal admission will be charged."

Starting time of the show is 9 p. m., and according to Harder, there will be an all-star program comparable to the performances presented in years past.

Delegates and members of 26 companies throughout the county will begin pouring into Kingston tomorrow afternoon to make ready for the convention sessions and the gigantic parade slated for Saturday.

Suppers will be served to the firemen at two uptown churches tomorrow at 6:30, the Albany Avenue Baptist and Fair Street Reformed. Then the men will go to the auditorium for the show.

Friday the business session of the convention and election of officers will take place at 8 p. m. in the auditorium.

Saturday's feature will be the parade at 2 p. m., starting downtown and covering the length of the city.

The march will be from the Strand up Broadway to Pearl Street to Wall, to North Front, to Clinton Avenue, to Albany Avenue to the New York State Armory where it will disband. Flags will fly along the route and the buildings are already bedecked in red, white and blue bunting with welcome signs for the visiting firemen.

So that it won't interfere with the parade, through traffic headed for Route 28 will be shifted from the Rondout creek bridge up Abel street to Wilbur Avenue to Washington Avenue and over the viaduct. Route 9W will go over Union street to Hasbrouck Avenue to the East Chester street bypass.

South bound traffic will follow the same route, avoiding Broadway.

Salamanca, N. Y., July 26 (AP)—A Salamanca grocery store displayed two piles of sacked sugar today—the five-pound sacks were labeled: "For regular customers, 94 cents a pound." On the pile of 25 and 100-pound sacks was this sign: "For hoarders, 16 cents a pound."

New Group Organizes and Names Melville President at Session

At an organizational meeting, Tuesday night, 75 Kingston residents went on record as favoring public housing and honoring Kingston's only Congressional Medal of Honor winner.

The name adopted by the group is the Progressive Taxpayer and Rent Payers Association, and its members intend to lend their full support to a state housing project intended for Kingston, according to the president, Albert J. Melville.

The association went on record as favoring the name Robert Dietz Memorial for the proposed housing project out of deference to Kingston's hero in World War 2, who singlehandedly opened the road for the capture of Kirchheim, Germany and as his citation states: "Left with his comrades in an inspiring example of gallantry in the face of formidable odds."

Wicks Is Speaker At Panel Session

Clinton, N. Y., July 26 (AP)—Governor Dewey headed the speakers at today's session of the second annual Republican School of Politics.

Prior to Dewey's speech, the 300 "pupils" were to hear a panel discussion by G.O.P. legislative leaders on the topic, "How a Bill Really Becomes a Law."

Leaders Hope to Give Bill On Pensions to President

Washington, July 26 (AP)—Congressional leaders hoped today to place on President Truman's desk before the end of next week a bill to boost federal old-age pensions. It would also bring 10,000,000 more workers into the retirement system.

Pension rates for persons retiring in the future would be increased about 100 per cent, while payments to about 3,000,000 persons already drawing benefits under the old-age and survivors insurance program would go up an average of 77 1/2 per cent, effective October 1.

Maximum benefits for a family would be raised from $85 to $150 a month.

To finance the expanded social security program, payroll taxes collected by the government would more than double over the next 20 years, rising from $2,500,000,000 this year to about $5,000,000,000 in 1970.

The taxes are paid by employee and employer on a 50-50 basis. Workers covered by the old age and survivors insurance system would be increased from the present 35,000,000 to about 45,000,000. Among those to be brought into the program are 5,000,000 self-employed, 1,000,000 domestic serv-

Communists' Push Prevented Yank Attack; May Withdraw

By LEIF ERIKSSON
U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters in Korea, July 26 (AP)—The ruddy American optimism of one week ago was sorely misplaced. United Nations Forces are running out of space to yield in their battle for time.

Quick American reinforcement is vital. Optimism was high a week ago. Two fresh U. S. Divisions were moving up to the front. There was talk—even firm plans—for an American attack.

But the overwhelming masses of Red troops kept shoving into the vital rail and highway corridor that runs from Taejon south-east to Pusan, the main U. S. supply port.

Red tanks and massed infantry forced the U. S. 24th Division to make a costly retreat from Taejon. Yesterday the Communists, still driving deeper down the corridor, hammered the U. S. First Cavalry Division out of Yong-dong.

May Cut Supply Lines
Meanwhile a Red scythe has made a lightning swing down the Yellow Sea coast and across Southwestern Korea. It has mowed down meager South Korean opposition. This sweep threatens to envelop the supply lines running from Pusan northward to the front.

The Reds—with tank support—still come on in vastly superior numbers despite tremendous losses. Almost certainly the next battle in the Taejon-Pusan corridor will be another delaying action—with another eventual withdrawal.

Kumchon is the next city on the important railway and highway southeast of Yongdong. By air it is 20 miles from Yongdong—30 by winding course through the mountain valley.

The Red drive toward Kumchon seems certain to be at a slower pace than from Taejon to Yongdong.

May Lose Vital Road
But if Kumchon falls, the Americans and South Koreans will lose a vital north-south road not linking the northern front with the Pusan-Kumchon rail and highway routes.

The First Cavalry Division's withdrawal from Yongdong will necessitate some adjustments in the positions of the U. S. 25th Division which holds the area to the north.

The area around the southeast corner of Korea will be pressed a little tighter. The Allies' beachhead on the peninsula is shrinking.

Pope Asks for Peace
Vatican City, July 26 (AP)—Pope Pius XII issued an encyclical today reminding the world that war "brings nothing but ruin, death and all kinds of misery" and imploring peoples and their rulers to strive for peace.

The newest encyclical, entitled "With Greatest Sorrow," was described by Vatican sources as the pontiff's most important pronouncement in many months. In it the pope also appealed for social justice for the world's needy.

Two-Millionth Visitor
Hyde Park, N. Y., July 26 (AP)—Mrs. Theodore A. Watne, a music teacher of Shabbona, Ill., yesterday became the 2,000,000th visitor to the grave of President Franklin D. Roosevelt. When Mrs. Watne, accompanied by her husband, superintendent of schools in Shabbona, entered the grounds here, George A. Palmer, superintendent of the Roosevelt national historic site, tore up their tickets and refunded the entrance fee.

Would Act If Freedom So Requires

Industrial Output Must Gain, President Says in Mid-Year Message on Economy

No More Is Asked
Does Not Seek Added Powers Beyond Bid of Week Ago

Washington, July 26 (AP)—President Truman today summoned the nation to "some sacrifice" of its civilian plenty. He declared himself ready to call for "complete economic mobilization" if the defense of freedom requires.

Mr. Truman told Congress, in his mid-year economic message, that price ceilings, rationing and "serious shortages" can be avoided if Congress quickly gives him limited control powers and a $5,000,000,000 tax increase.

But he warned: "We must realize that the engagement in Korea will be costly and may not be short. We must prepare against the possibility that new crises may arise elsewhere."

That hazard means, the President said, that industrial output must be stepped up—possibly by a rate of $10,000,000,000 annually by January 1—and that basic industry itself must be expanded by federal loans and guarantees.

"We cannot afford longer to risk the possibility of future desperate shortages of some of the most essential requirements for our national security," Mr. Truman said.

Steel Heads List
He did not name steel specifically as one of the industries critically needing expansion. But it headed his list of "scarcity" materials despite capacity operation since April.

Safety from further Communist aggression depends, Mr. Truman said, on "production and more production," and safety from inflation depends on business and consumers alike refraining from "hoarding and avarice."

The message asked no emergency powers beyond those requested a week ago—to control credit, allocate scarce materials, limit civilian output, requisition goods, curb commodity speculation, and help finance industry's expansion for war.

It added new pressure on Congress to grant those powers, however, and its keynote was speed—speed in both law-making and munitions-making.

The powers requested, Mr. Truman said, not only will meet present needs but will perform another essential service—to "build up our preparedness" for more drastic steps if the military situation worsens.

Detailed Plans Drawn
"Detailed plans for these further steps" have been drawn, Mr. Truman disclosed, and he added: "If it should become necessary, I shall without hesitation ask the Congress for the grant of the powers to implement these further plans, whether for complete economic mobilization or for further intermediate action depending upon the need."

Because of shortages of steel, copper and certain other materials—whose prices have soared in the last few weeks—some civilian goods must be shunted off the production lines to make room for armaments. Limited controls should suffice, Mr. Truman said, but he went on:

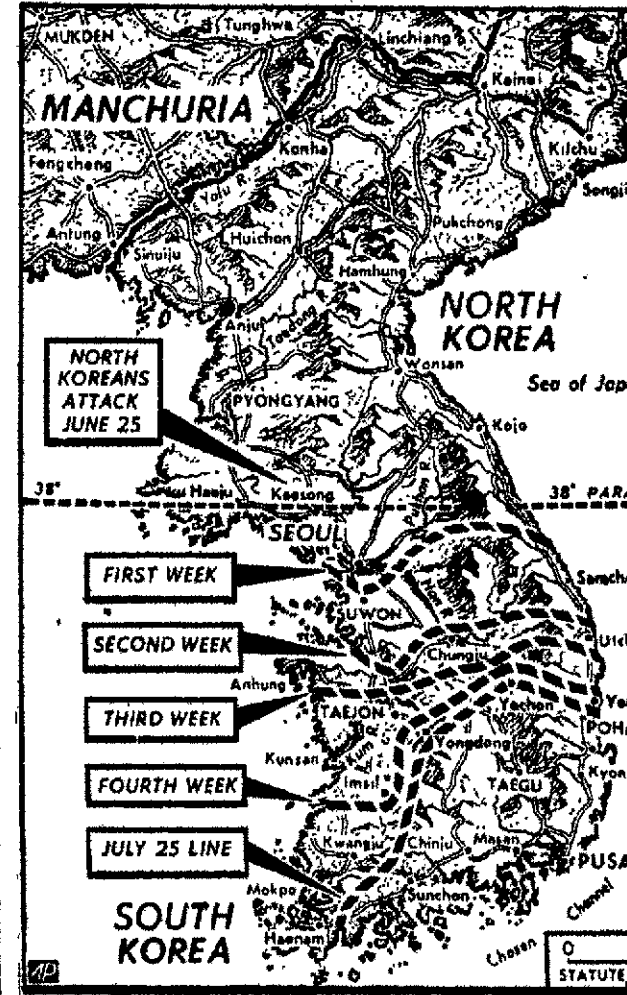

"This does not mean that we can meet our enlarged international obligations without some sacrifices of domestic consumption. 'Some sacrifice is called for, and I am confident that the American people are ready to do their part.'"

On the voluntary side, the President asked: "OF BUSINESS: Restraint in pricing its products and in buying materials for inventory. And, most particularly, expansion of industry's capacity to turn out the basic products needed for war or peace."

OF LABOR: Avoidance of wage demands "which might lead to another inflationary spiral. And above all, an effort with management to achieve industrial peace. 'Work stoppages in vital industries are something we simply

South Korea One Month After

Here is the geography after a month of fighting in South Korea, July 25. It was June 25 when the North Korean invasion got under way. After 30 days of fighting, the Communist forces control roughly two-thirds of the area south of the 38th parallel. Map shows the relative size of the southeast area where U. S. forces are fighting, with relation to the entire Korean peninsula.

Pfc. Merrill Small Tells of Strong Attack by North Koreans

Pfc. Merrill Small, 19, of Modena, member of a heavy mortar company with an American regiment engaged in the Korean campaign, is quoted today by Associated Press Correspondent Don Whitehead.

Small's unit was caught in a night attack which took U. S. forces by surprise on the right flank near Yongdong. Whitehead says the regiment, which had beaten back two red attacks Tuesday morning, was cocky and confident.

Too Much Force
But the onslaught, which started at 5 p. m., came in too much force. Small said his unit was hit about 2 a. m. when snipers and machinegunners closed in around them.

"I had to stay in my foxhole until 6 a. m.," Small said, "Then I made a break for it."

Pattern Is Familiar
It was a familiar pattern repeating itself with little hope of a change, Whitehead reported, until reinforcements of American troops—or United Nations forces—are thrown into the fight to (Continued on Page 17, Col. 3)

Tokyo Reports Several Attacks Repulsed on Yondong Area Despite Tank Push

Korean Division Presses Pincer Drive on Allied Flanks

Tokyo, Thursday, July 27 (AP)—Outnumbered American and South Korean troops clung stubbornly to defense positions Wednesday in the face of "heavy pressure" along all fronts, General MacArthur's headquarters said today.

A field report indicated that the embattled defenders may have recaptured Hadong, only 70 miles by air west of the major American supply port of Pusan, after furious air strikes left the city ablaze.

Headquarters of the United Nations commander in Tokyo, in a release issued at 12:50 a. m. Wednesday (E.S.T.), said the First Cavalry Division had repulsed a number of North Korean attacks on the Yondong front in the center of the defense lines. The Reds hurled waves of tanks and infantry in an effort to overwhelm the defenders.

Flanking Continues
The Fourth North Korean Division was reported continuing its violent flanking move along Korea's west coast, while the Communist Fifth Division was "heavily engaged" on the east coast, somewhere south of Yongdok. Fresh enemy forces—of undetermined size—were spotted by American pilots pushing south along the east coast from Samchok, 74 miles north of Yongdok, to back up the Red offensive on the extreme right wing of the line. The battle was within 25 miles of the American beachhead and supply port of Pohang where the First Cavalry Division landed one week ago.

Headquarters said "no alarm was felt" over the flanking move of the enemy down Korea's coast because of the small number of troops involved.

However north and east of Yondong where the First Cavalry Division lines are under heavy pressure, the Reds were streaming through mountainous passes at Yongsan, Chongnan and Ponghwan Mountain. These were eight and 23 miles respectively north and east of Yondong.

Largest Ground Battle
The four day battle in which the Reds won Yondong earlier this week was the largest ground battle of the campaign thus far, with overwhelming pressure placed on four game new U. S. regiments strung along a 25-mile front.

In the Hadong battle, a Fifth Airforce spokesman said the city was subjected to vigorous assault by infantry and planes.

He said carrier launched planes attacked the central front. The unconfirmed report of the city's capture might be the first by United Nations forces to plug the gap in their shrinking defense perimeter in Southeast Korea.

The Reds put the squeeze on the United Nations front elsewhere today.

Besides seizing Hadong—which they may have since lost—they pushed the U. S. First Cavalry further away from Yondong, threatened Pusan, vital U. S. southern base, and gathered strength for a running fight down the road to Kumchon from Yondong. Yondong was lost in the biggest ground action of the war.

Lines Are Stabilized
Despite these reversals, which drew some pessimistic comment from the war front in Korea, a spokesman at General MacArthur's headquarters said the battle line around Yondong have "stabilized considerably."

He added confidently: New American strength—which includes an army and a marine division enroute from the United States—assures the Korean "beachhead can be held."

In sharp contrast to this headquarters statement, Associated Press Correspondent Leif Eriksson at U. S. Eighth Army headquarters in Korea said the rosy American optimism of last week was sorely misplaced.

Eriksson said the United Na-

A.F.L. and C.I.O. Make First Pact

Washington, July 26 (AP)—The A.F.L. and C.I.O. have made their first formal agreement to work together in politics, legislation, and international policy.

A permanent A.F.L.-C.I.O. Unity Committee, created yesterday, meets again today. Later, perhaps in a day or two, it will hold other meetings to consider practical machinery to settle inter-union quarrels and to study proposals for "organic unity in the American labor movement."

The committee also plans, sooner or later, to bring the United Mine Workers and other outside unions into the discussions. As expected, "organic unity"—or real merger of the A.F.L. and C.I.O.—is definitely not just around the corner. The news of immediate importance is that for the first time in the history of their rivalry, the A.F.L. and C.I.O. top commands have proclaimed to the country and to all their 141 unions:

"We will work together."

In part, this amounts to an official sanction of A.F.L.-C.I.O. cooperation that has been increasing in various fields—sometimes on a local level almost secretly.

Quick Relief from Pile Irritation

40 years ago a Buffalo druggist created an ointment to relieve itching, smarting piles. It brought such quick, cooling, soothing, astringent relief that its fame spread across the land making Peterson's Ointment a favorite in thousands of homes. Ask your druggist today for 40c box or 70c applicator tube. Peterson's Ointment delights or money back.

YELLOWSTONE PARK WHIRL

Fabulous Yellowstone has everything—even a twister. Spokane Daily Chronicle's northwest editor Harold R. Boyd, vacationing near Mackay Inn, Idaho, saw a strange cloud (top) over Yellowstone Park a few miles to northeast and began clicking his "drugstore" camera to record the birth, full bloom (center) and fadeaway of a baby tornado. No damage was reported after the twister which was accompanied by heavy rain and hail. (AP Wirephoto).

Long Wins Term In U.S. Senate

New Orleans, July 26 (AP)—Sen. Russell Long won overwhelmingly a full term in the United States Senate.

His victory insures that the name made famous by his father, Huey P. Long, will continue prominent in Louisiana affairs.

His principal opponent, Malcolm LaFargue, Shreveport attorney backed by a major coalition of anti-Long political forces, conceded defeat last night less than two hours after the last polls closed in Louisiana's Senatorial Democratic primary.

When votes from 1,760 of the state's 2,092 precincts had been tabulated unofficially, Long had 307,129 to 141,677 for LaFargue and 7,749 for former U. S. Rep. Newt V. Mills of Monroe.

Success in the Democratic primary means election in Louisiana. Long ran on his record as an interim Senator since 1948 when he was elected for the balance of the term of the late Sen. John Overton.

Boozer Sues Wife For $500 Maintenance

Los Angeles, July 26 (AP)—Edward F. Boozer, 34, former marine hero who has sued his wealthy wife for $500 a month separate maintenance, was accused by her today of adultery.

Mrs. Joyce Primrose Boozer, 40, heiress to a $5,000,000 Illinois cattle and farm fortune with a $100,000-a-year income, amended her divorce action yesterday.

She charged that Boozer, who has a 100 per cent disability rating, "at various places, apartments, motels, hotels and rooms, did commit adultery with various, numerous and sundry women whose names and identities are not known at this time."

Boozer's plea for separate maintenance, in answer to her divorce suit, claims that his government pension is inadequate. He accused his wife of infidelity.

She charged in her new complaint that he beat her head against the floor, pulled hair from her head, threw hot coffee in her face, struck her with a telephone and threatened to kill her.

Ferlino Resigns

Albany, N. Y., July 26 (AP)—Dr. Frank R. Ferlino of New York city has resigned as chairman of the State Athletic Commission's medical advisory board. Governor Dewey's office said yesterday that no successor had been named. In New York city Dr. Ferlino said he had resigned because of the pressure of other business. He has

Man Got Cases Only

Indianapolis, July 26 (AP)—The guy who stole 250 gold watches from a room in a downtown Indianapolis hotel will have to depend on his own watch if he wants to know the time. Irving Miller, 45, of Clayton, Mo., a jewelry salesman, told police the watches were for display purposes only and contained no clock works. Miller said the watches were stolen from his hotel room when he went to the lobby for a few minutes. He estimated their value at $3,000.

Peace Parleys Sought

New York, July 26 (AP)—City and federal mediators pushed for peace parleys today in the week-old teamsters' strike that has nearly paralyzed building construction here and on Long Island. The walkout by the A.F.L. drivers hit only sand, gravel and building supply companies directly. But by cutting off these supplies the strike has caused a growing number of construction layoffs throughout the week. Howard McSpedon, president of the A.F.L. Building Construction Trades Council, estimated that from 150,000 to 175,000 building craftsmen may be idled by tonight.

Nowadays every financial performance is endlessly complicated, and the security of the home as well as its happiness depends upon such knowledge as will be taught as a result of these courses for teachers. The older generation may never get out of this fog of figures, but their young people will have the advantage of specific instruction.

A political cartoon by H. H. H. depicting the burden of the 1950 campaign. A horse, representing the electorate, is straining to pull a massive, heavy wheelbarrow labeled "THE 1950 CAMPAIGN". The horse is shown in a state of distress, with its head down and mouth open. Above the horse, the word "WHOA!!" is written in large, bold letters. In the background, a man in a top hat, labeled "POLITICS", is being pulled by a chain labeled "KOREA". The man is looking back over his shoulder at the struggling horse. The cartoon is signed "H. H. ## Vein Ran Out

Philadelphia, July 26 (AP)—A Philadelphian telephoned a coal dealer and asked that a ton of pea coal be delivered to his home. The dealer said he was all out of pea-sized coal and would a ton of chestnut do just as well. The customer asked how come the pea coal supply was exhausted. "The pea coal vein ran out," said the dealer. The customer—a former coal miner who knew all sizes of coal came from the same vein—hung up.

Trump-Players Risk
Becoming Derelicts

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

"Twenty thousand men are walking the streets of London," runs the old saying, "homeless and penniless—because they failed to lead trumps." If you're inclined to pity these poor unfortunates, shed a tear at the same time for the equally miserable thousands who drew trumps when they shouldn't have. In today's hand, for example, South would have been a gone goose if he had drawn trumps.

West opened the king of spades and continued the suit, South ruffing the second round with the ten of hearts. Now if South tried to draw trumps he would have to use up all of his trumps to draw those held by West. He would then be able to cash his top cards in the minor suits. The moment he gave up the lead, however, the opponents would bury him under an avalanche of spades. South would therefore make only his five trumps and his four top cards in the minors, for a one-trick set.

After ruffing the second spade, South decided to set up the dummy and draw trumps from the North hand. With this object in mind he led the eight of hearts to dummy's nine, and ruffed a third spade with the jack of hearts. He next led the queen of hearts to dummy's king and returned dummy's last spade, ruffing with the ace of hearts.

By this time East had failed to follow suit in both spades and hearts. It was therefore clear that West had begun with five spades and four hearts. At this point, West held one spade, two hearts, and his original four cards in the minor suits.

If South made the mistake of leading clubs first, he would make only one diamond trick. West would ruff the second diamond and lead the queen of clubs. This would limit declarer to nine tricks. South could not tell that West held a singleton diamond. However, it was important for South to begin the minor suit in which West was short. Since declarer could see eight diamonds in the clubs, he quite properly decided that West was more likely to be short in diamonds than in clubs.

Acting on this assumption, South cashed the ace of diamonds and led a low diamond towards dummy. West was helpless to defeat the contract after this play. If he discarded, dummy would take the king of diamonds and declarer would then cash his two clubs and a trump, fulfilling his contract.

If West ruffed the low diamond, dummy would play low. West could next cash his spade, but would then have to lead a trump or a club. In either case, dummy could take the king of clubs and the king of hearts, thus drawing the last trump. It would then be safe to cash the king of diamonds, and South's ace of clubs would take the tenth trick.

Help in Japan Asked

Tokyo, July 26 (AP)—The Korean Communist radio is urging Koreans in Japan to destroy American military bases—by suicide tactics if necessary. A broadcast from Pyongyang, North Korean capital, last night also asked Koreans in Japan to obstruct the flow of American supplies from Japan to South Korea. Addressed to "our 65,000 compatriots in Japan," the broadcast as heard here said: "Launch immediately on suicide squad activities. Cooperate with Japanese workers and obstruct the transportation of military supplies. *** Destroy military bases. Overthrow the reactionary cabinet of Japan. Your motherland strongly appeals to you."

As Pegler Sees It

And his gratuitous tribute to Roosevelt's political mastery already is drowned in the gunfire and the dying whimpers of homesick little boys in Korea, with more evil medicine brewing in East Germany. Was it political mastery or a satanic genius that produced these premonitory notes in a colossal tragedy?

"He was not even an intellectual," Gunther says. "He had a few ideas....he lacked wholeness of soul....he almost never had abstract thoughts at all. I once asked someone very much on his side who was as well qualified to know as anybody, 'Just how does the President think?' The answer was, 'My Dear Mr. Gunther, the President never thinks.'"

I will not labor the profundity of that question, so typical of the pretentiousness that passed for intellectual process in the cult. I only stick a pin in it: "Just how does the President think?"

Now we read an appalling and truthful list of Churchill's manipulations of a man trusted by the people of the United States as no other ever was.

"Churchill," we are told, "armed" Roosevelt with patient lessons; he laid the framework for the destroyer's transfer; he ceaselessly enjoined, explored, exhorted; he wheedled him, encouraged him and called out, sternly, 'do it now'; he prompted Roosevelt in the idea for Lend-Lease, on the celebrated 19-point letter of December, 1940; he kept at him artfully through his ambassador in Washington; he analyzed history for him as he made it, in documents of unprecendented insight, brilliance, variety and vigor."

All this, be it remembered to the end that Churchill could rejoice at Pearl Harbor with his classical exultation that this calamity was the fulfillment of his struggle, his yearnings and his prayers.

And yet Gunther says it must not be thought that Roosevelt was a dupe.

"The Churchill salesmanship was masterly; but F.D.R. did not need to be sold on major premises."

These are samples from a text which bids us ignore Pegler and other forthright heretics and damn this preparation of our doom out of the text of a well-fed true-believer.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

New York, July 26 (AP)—Investors trying to guess which way the stock market is going to jump get some help from studying its actions in the first two World Wars, but not enough.

Times have changed in the security exchanges, too.

Changing psychology is part of it. The investing public has approached each of the three conflicts in entirely different spirit. They learned about war stocks in World War One; they learned about taxes in World War Two; and they aren't sure this time just what's in store.

Partly it's the greatly changed role the government plays in the affairs of business and finance. The public is well conditioned by now to controls, restrictions and interference.

The world was so unprepared economically for the outbreak of World War One that fear of a complete collapse in stock prices kept the New York Stock Exchange closed for four and a half months—from July 31 to December 14, 1914—and on a restricted trading basis until April 1, 1915.

Was Profitable Business

Then the war babies came into their own. Bethlehem Steel advanced from $46 a share to $117 by April 9, and on to $700 the next year. General Motors went from a 1915 low of $32 to a 1916 high of $850. War seemed a profitable business then.

Humphrey B. Neill notes in his book, "The Inside Story of the Stock Exchange," that traders remembered the war babies when World War Two began Sept. 1, 1939, and behaved just the opposite from the way they did in the first war. This time the panic was to buy, not to sell. The market advanced 20 points in three days. On September 5 volume was 5,934,350 shares.

The crash came eight and a half months later, May 14, 1940, as the Germans were overrunning France. The price averaged dropped $35 in two days.

The low point in prices came in April, 1942, when events were blackest for the United States on all fronts. But from then until 1946 stock prices climbed as traders bet on American victory and good business ahead.

But there were none of the fantastic price increases like those in the First World War. A new device, the excess profits tax, kept the war baby stocks from soaring in price as they had 25 years before when corporations kept all of their big profits.

Now once more, stock market prices are being tied to a war, and to each day's changing hopes and fears. But there are a number of differences. First, the Korean war is not World War Three, and there is great uncertainty as to whether it will become so. Second, higher taxes are expected at any time. Third, most of the war babies made better profits in the five brief years of peace than they had in the last war, and that makes them "peace babies," too. Fourth, corporations live in a gold fish bowl now with the Securities and Exchange Commission always peering in.

Exchange trading rules are different now. Margin requirements have changed and can be regulated by the government.

After the Korean frontier was violated, two big waves of selling hit the stock market. The first was pure shock at the interruption to the peacetime business boom and it topped a stock price structure already shaky from a year-long advance without a healthy shake-down.

The second selling wave came with the realization that the war might be a long one, with even bigger doses of controls and taxes than last time. Traders felt that many booming industries catering to civilian needs and pleasures might be clipped in production and profits to make way for war production.

Then came the reaction. Big investors were reported picking up bargains. Some industries, like the railroads, were expected to be helped by more business. And some companies may be in more favorable positions than others when the bases for the new taxes are announced.

But in the day by day changes in the weeks and months ahead, the market may react as it did in the previous wars, prices fluctuating with the E.R.B. and flow of our military fortunes.

The very different financial and corporate set-up of the nation now than in 1914 and in 1939 plays a part, too. In 1914 there were 511 issues of stock listed on the New York Stock Exchange. When panicky selling hit a volume of 1,280,753 shares July 30, 1914, the board of governors were afraid to let the exchange open the next morning, or for months afterward.

In 1939 there were 1,237 issues listed. But trading volume of nearly six million shares merely meant that buyers were anticipating a boom in profits. That was in the days of innocence before the excess profits tax was born.

This time there are almost 1,500 different issues listed. But when selling volume hit 4,880,000 shares June 27, no one even thought of closing the exchange. There will be ups and downs in the days ahead, but no one—unless maybe the Russians—thinks our financial and corporate system can't stand the strain.

Burglar, 19, Is Killed

New York, July 26 (AP)—A year-old burglar was shot to death today when he fled from a patrolman after breaking into a gasoline station near 242nd street and Broadway in the Bronx, police reported. He was identified as a draft card as Lawrence P. F. ney, of 226 West 238th street, Bronx. Patrolmen Robert Kell and John Brogan were chasing a radio car when a taxicab driver told them he saw a man break into a Sunoco station at 242 Broadway.

New York Banks Plan For Possible Air Attack

New York, July 26 (AP)—Manhattan's banks let it be known today that they are making plans to cope with any enemy air attack on the nation's largest city.

The banks emphasized, however, that no "fear psychology" is responsible for their action.

One banker put it this way: It is "no longer prudent" in view of current events to delay preparation of a detailed over-all program to safeguard banking operations here.

The plans are being drawn up under the direction of the New York Clearing House.

Plans already under consideration call for microfilming on a day-to-day basis of all essential documents, including account ledgers, security accounts and loan agreements and their transfer to storage places in outlying areas.

Decentralization of banking headquarters through the use of out-of-town annexes also is under consideration.

New Name for Crosby Elko, Nev., July 25 (AP)—Bing Crosby, "The Grouper" is now "Sond-Hoo-Va-A-Gund." Der Bingle picked up the new name yesterday. He was adopted into the tough Piute Indian tribe. He also was given a feather headdress and permanent hunting and fishing rights on the reservation. Oh, yes, the name. It means "man of many songs."

When you need new tires BUY THE BEST! Buy GOODYEAR

No other tires offer so much quality per dollar — measured in safety, mileage, looks and car economy. Here's double-barreled proof that Goodyear tires are your best buy:

1. Car Makers use more Goodyear tires on their new cars than any other kind
2. Car Owners buy more Goodyear tires than any other kind

THE TIRE YOU WANT

To get the most for your money, the tire you buy must fit YOUR particular needs.

Goodyear offers you a complete line of tires and tubes . . . a line to fit your car . . . your budget . . . your driving habits.

IT'S VALUE THAT COUNTS

The final answer to tire value is how many trouble-free miles a tire delivers as compared to its cost. Get Goodyear quality and find out for yourself why Goodyear tires have been the first choice of motorists for 35 consecutive years.

MORE PEOPLE RIDE ON GOODYEAR TIRES THAN ANY OTHER KIND

TRADE NEW MILES FOR OLD

90% of all tire trouble occurs in the last 10% of tire life. Why take chances with worn, smooth tires? We'll trade you new Goodyear miles for the remaining unsafe mileage left in your present tires. Get out of the "danger zone" — go Goodyear for greater safety.

TERMS TO FIT YOUR POCKET BOOK

You can still get longer-wearing Goodyear tires at prices you like to pay, on terms to suit your convenience. Let's get together and talk tires — the BEST tires — Goodyear tires. We'll go a long way to give you a more generous allowance for your old tires, and easier terms, too.

Henry V. Poor
Is Picked to Run

New York, July 26 (AP)—Henry V. Poor, 36-year-old lawyer and a leader of a C.O.P. progressive movement, has been picked by the Republican Party to run against Rep. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., (Dem.-Liberal) for Congress in November.

Roosevelt is expected to have organization Democratic backing for reelection to Congress unless the party tabs him for higher office. Tammany Hall denied him the Democratic nomination in his first bid for public office last year, but he won handily with the backing of several groups.

Selection of Poor by the New York county (Manhattan) Republican committee was announced yesterday by the county chairman, Secretary of State Thomas J. Curran.

Poor is executive director of the recently-formed Republican Advance, an independent group of C.O.P. members which has been trying to devise a winning formula for the party.

He has served in the State Department, and is a past president of the New York Young Republican Club.

Blames Russia for War
Manila, July 26 (AP)—Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo blames Russia for the Korean War and says it was the turning point in the world's search for peace. Romulo, Philippine foreign secretary and United Nations General Assembly president, told the Women's International League yesterday: U.N. failure in Korea would be interpreted by totalitarian forces as not only a sign of weakness but of defeat. He described the Korean war as one of a series of Russian attempts to "probe for flaws in the armor of western democracies."

Ammonia takes its name from an ammonite, which according to legend was first made near the temple of Jupiter Ammon in Egypt.

Assemblyman Asks
Police Give Help

Rochester, N. Y., July 26 (AP)—Assemblyman Leo P. Noonan today appealed to local police departments to help the state keep overloaded trucks off the highways.

"Overloaded trucks are dangerous trucks," Noonan asserted.

"The small force of State Troopers cannot begin to adequately patrol the 102,000 miles of pavement in New York," he said in a speech prepared for the annual convention of the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police.

The police chiefs opened their three-day session yesterday.

Noonan, a Republican from Cattaraugus county, is a member of the Assembly Committee on Motor Vehicles.

He told the police officers the state's $5,000,000,000 highway system was the "greatest public property investment in the state," but said it received less protection from pavement-breaking overloads than roads of any other important state.

Officers Are Re-elected

New York, July 26 (AP)—The entire right-wing slate of top officers of the C.I.O.-National Maritime Union has been re-elected for another two-year term. President Joseph Curran calls the ballot results the membership's answer to "disruptive and union-wrecking tactics of the Communist party."

Curran, who topped his slate, defeated Robert McElroy for president by 23,101 to 4,538. Jack Lawrence, a vice-president who heads the anti-Curran faction of the union, was defeated for reelection.

Man Is Suffocated

Quannah, Tex., July 26 (AP)—Harry H. Duckworth, 61, suffocated last night when buried under eight feet of cottonseed hulls. Rescuers shoveled 20 minutes before they could reach Duckworth, trapped by the cotton seed as it flowed into a mill seed house where he was working.

CUSTOMERS PICKETED AGAINST SCARE BUYING

Bearing signs asking shoppers not to hoard food, members of the Philadelphia Transport Workers union began picketing Philadelphia grocery stores in a campaign against war "scare buying." A union spokesman said they were "not picketing stores but we're picketing the shoppers" who had been buying up coffee, sugar and other items since start of Korean war campaign. (AP Wirephoto)

Muddled Economy

Ours is a muddled economy. Inflationary and deflationary forces are arrayed side by side. Regardless of controls, of excess profits taxes and a half dozen other devices of deflationary import, the war is going to pump a lot more inflation into the national economy.

The inflation is coming from several different directions. First, America's productive capacity will be greatly expanded. Steel, for instance—the backbone of our economy in peace and in war—will be in such terrific demand as to make allocations necessary.

Secondly, inflation pressures growing out of stimulated employment and cost rises will become intensified. Wages and prices are always hard to control when economy conditions are such as they promise to be when men and machines and money are in great demand.

From General Omar Bradley and the highest military officers in Washington, urgent requests for more money are forthcoming. The shape of our economy during the coming months will be geared to the war effort.

World War Two cost $250,000,000 a day

Of this about $100,000,000 was raised through taxation. The remaining $150,000,000 daily came from borrowing. In other words, the cost of World War two was met by 40 per cent taxation and 60 per cent borrowing.

It is reasonable to suppose that the government's financial program in the weeks and months ahead will follow some such pattern. Taxes hold down the inflation; borrowing expands it.

Every savings bank depositor, every government bond holder, every insurance policy owner and all people who possess dollars and dollar values are involved directly by present economic conditions. As I said in this column a few weeks ago, the integrity of the dollar is going to get worse before it gets better. In fact this general theme I have harped on for 15 years.

Everybody should own some values that will somewhat protect them against a deteriorating dollar. Well, what are they? The best values are those that are indispensable to our standards of living; those that are under sound and capable management and that over the years have shown a profit to everybody concerned.

Whether the Korean war will demand the expenditures to ten billions or a hundred billions (nobody knows what dimensions the present conflict will develop), our national economy is to be greatly expanded in the immediate future. And with the country so flooded with dollars and fixed dollar values, a foundation for a terrific surge in stock prices has been laid. There are over $50,000,000,000 of savings bonds in the country. Commercial deposits in banks total more than $80,000,000,000. Currency in circulation stands around $27,000,000,000.

If, with the dollar deteriorating, five per cent of this fluid money should flow into the stocks where there is a measure of inflation protection, we should experience on the New York Stock Exchange a buying wave of unprecedented proportions.

A time may be ahead when stock buying will be predicated not on earnings and dividends, but on dollar protection. If far does spread—as every investor hopes it will not—what the dollar will be worth eventually is anybody's guess.

Will Call Some Reserves

Mitchel Air Force Base, N. Y., July 26 (AP)—The Continental Air Command announced yesterday that a selected group of air force reservists, both officers and airmen, will be recalled starting Friday to fill specific vacancies. The recall will be for a one-year period, but the C.A.C. said the reservists "may be released earlier if conditions permit." The reservists will be notified by telegram when and where to report for duty. The air force will allow them 10 days to settle their private affairs, in addition to travel time to air force stations. Women now in the U. S. Air Force Reserve are not affected by the orders.

Clay Asks Blueprint
Of State Medical Needs

New York, July 26 (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay has called for a blueprint of New York's medical needs in the event bombs are dropped on the Empire State.

Clay, chairman of the New York State Civil Defense Commission, requested such plans yesterday in a letter to Dr. Herman E. Hilleboe, state commissioner of health.

Clay asked that plans for mobilizing the state's medical resources be drafted by the middle of next month and that estimates be made of medical supplies and hospitalization likely to be needed in a war emergency.

Included in the estimates requested by Clay were "the hospital requirements which may be expected to result from the dropping of bombs."

Clay asked that emergency spaces throughout the state be selected in advance, and arrangements made for the evacuation of patients to such hospitals.

Would Sue Lawyer

Sacramento, Calif., July 26 (AP)—Quann Shuck Hong wanted to sue a taxicab company after he was injured, he said, by one of its cabs in 1948. The case never developed. So yesterday Quann sued his lawyer for $25,000. Quann declared the lawyer's failure to file the suit within one year cost him the chance to recover damages.

Catskill Strike
Ends With Pact

Catskill, N. Y., July 26 (AP)—A four-week-old strike against the Alpha Portland Cement Co. plant here ended today when workers returned to their jobs under a new wage and pension agreement.

Members of the A.F.L. United Cement, Lime and Gypsum Workers voted yesterday to accept a company offer of a 13-cent-an-hour pay increase. The basic wage rates were not disclosed.

Audin Straub, district business agent for the union, said the pension plan provided for a maximum of $63 a month, in addition to Social Security, for workers with 35 years of service, regardless of age.

The pension agreement is to run for five years, the wage contract for two years, Straub said. The plant employs about 165 persons.

Two other Alpha plants—at Jamesville, N. Y. and Martins Creek, Pa.—still are strike-bound.

52 Boys Attend Y.M.C.A. Outing At Bear Mountain

Fifty-two boys went on the weekly Y.M.C.A. Youth Center outing Monday, with games, swimming and picnicking at Bear Mountain.

The 25-yard swim was won by Tony Nicoletti, with Ray Williams and Ben Storms in second and third places. John Gaddis won the 50 yard swim with Bob Teller second and Ron Anderson third.

The foot race was won by Rick Marcus, with Tom Rowland second and Herb Rougier third; and Frank Sottile was the winner of the obstacle race, with Tony Grimaldi coming in second and John Schmidt third.

In charge of the outing was Clarence Correll, Y.M.C.A. youth director, assisted by Eddie Bruck, and leaders Ray Glass, Bill DuBois and John Janakie.

Next week's outing will be a trip to the Catskill Game Farm, with a stop at the Saugerties beach. Boys interested in going should telephone the Y for reservations.

Dr. Fred S. Carr Weds Ida Roosa In Fair St. Church

Miss Ida T. Roosa, daughter of Charles T. Roosa, 111 Fairview avenue, was married at 4 p. m. Monday to Dr. Fred S. Carr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Carr, 85 Lucas avenue, in the Fair Street Reformed Church. The Rev. J. Dean Dykstra officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Shurter, sister and brother-in-law of the bride, were the attendants. A reception was held for members of the immediate families at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shurter, 10 St. James street. The couple left for a wedding trip through the New England states.

Dr. Carr is a practicing surgeon and physician in this city. His bride is a registered nurse.

Hilda Mary Longendyke Becomes Bride Of Robert Felton in St. Peter's Church

Miss Hilda Mary Longendyke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Longendyke, 210 O'Neill street, became the bride Sunday of Robert Serrette Felton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Felton of Ruby. The double-ring, afternoon ceremony was performed by the Rev. Henry E. Herdogen in St. Peter's Church.

The church was decorated with garden flowers. Miss Pan Goldrick was the organist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of frosted organza with a long train, long pointed sleeves, and a square neckline with a three-tiered bertha. She carried a cascade of white gladioli. Her veil of imported illusion fell from a sweetheart headpiece.

Matron of honor was Mrs. William Martin, sister of the bride, and three sisters of the bride—Mrs. Charles Markie, Mrs. Robert Steeger, and Miss Arlene Longendyke. They were frosted organza gowns over pastel taffeta, with matching flower wreaths in their hair, and carried cascades of gladioli.

The gowns of all the attendants were made by the bride's mother. Twin flowergirls, June and Jane Martin, nieces of the bride, carried small nosegays and wore white frosted organza over pale yellow.

George Felton of Ruby, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Ferrell F. McElrath, Kingston, John D. Forman, Kingston, William G. Hulsair, Ruby, and Clyde A. Gaddis, Esopus.

Robert Steeger, Jr., nephew of the bride, was ringbearer. After a reception for 125 guests at Roseland restaurant, the couple left for a wedding journey to northern New York and Canada. For traveling the bride wore a sheer, toast-colored dress with brown and white accessories and a cascade of gardenias. They will live at 144 West Pierpont street.

The bride attended St. Peter's School and Kingston High School. She is employed at the Hercules Powder Company. The groom attended Ruby School and Kingston High School. He is employed at I.B.M. Co., Poughkeepsie.

TRAINING CHILDREN

A mother asks about training her young children: (a) Please tell me how my small sons should indicate that they have not understood what a grown person has said to them. (b) Sometimes when they're with me older people will ignore the boys, not even greeting them. Should they just quietly say nothing or may I encourage their taking the initiative in greeting an older person or offering a hand?

(a) "I'm sorry, I don't understand. (b) They should wait for the older person to make the gesture of greeting and not feel hurt if none is made.

Young Wedding Attendants Dear Mrs. Post: Is it unsuitable for an older bride and groom to have two attendants who are just half their age?

Answer: As only attendants the younger people would be suitable. In fact, often the bride and groom at their second marriages have their own children with them on this occasion. Also at other weddings children often serve as junior attendants in addition to regular ones.

Confusing Term to Some Dear Mrs. Post: I have received an invitation to help observe an important anniversary occasion at the church. On it is specified that there will be a "covered-dish luncheon" in the church at noon. Does this mean that each one is supposed to bring his own food, or what?

Answer: At a covered-dish luncheon (or supper) each member who is coming brings one "covered dish" of food. The food that each brings is usually stipulated.

Boss's Daughter Being Married Dear Mrs. Post: My boss's daughter is being married and I've received an invitation to the wedding and the reception. Must I give the reason for declining (a) in the written answer (b) to the father at the office?

Answer: (a) No. (b) Yes. Plain Card With Gift Dear Mrs. Post: When one doesn't own a visiting card and is using a plain card to enclose with a wedding present, how should the name be written? I'm not an intimate friend nor am I a relative.

Answer: Best wishes from Mary Smith, and if you may not be recognized by this name then add under it (Mrs. John Smith.) Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. However, her letter E-17 includes—when to rise and when to shake hands while being introduced, what to say when making introductions and how to reply. ### 'Christopher Bean' Proves Smash Hit At Playhouse; Audience Cheers Cast

In movie jargon, it's called a smash hit—and that's what the Margaret Webster company has on its hands this week at the Woodstock Playhouse.

The opening-night audience gave what amounted to an ovation to the cast of "The Late Christopher Bean" at the final curtain last night. They shouted, stamped their feet, and clapped until their hands hurt. And the bowing actors and actresses replaced their professional smiles with grins of real delight.

Typical overheard comment in the audience:

"I've seen this play three times—but I've never seen it done with such verve as they gave it tonight!"

Verve is the word. . . . and gusto, spirit, and real comedy sense are also words to describe last night's performance. Walking off with top honors was Mary Wickes, who as Abby, gaunt Yankee maid-of-all-work and admirer of Christopher Bean, performed her role to perfection. An actress of rare talent, she is a master of that difficult art—projection-without-ham. No need for Mary Wickes to "punch" a comedy line, with an ogle at the audience. She is that magnificent thing—an actress who appears to have no technique. She has it, all right, but it doesn't show. Cornell's technique shows. Webster's shows. Le Gallienne's shows, but Mary Wickes' does not. And the audience repaid her with the most enthusiastic applause heard in these halls for many a moon.

Rivalling Mary Wickes' performance were Cayada Humphrey and the indefatigable Larry Gates as Mrs. Haggatt and Dr. Haggatt—the country doctor and his greedy wife who suddenly discover they have permitted a fortune to slip through their fingers (maybe) by their carelessness with the canvases of a "no-good painter" who died 10 years earlier.

Larry Gates is one of the finest and most versatile actors this reviewer has had the privilege of watching. And Miss Humphrey, after her splendid work of last week as the eldest of Chekov's "Three Sisters," turned in an excellent performance in a different role as can be imagined.

Another character who delighted the audience—especially the artists who were present—was the New York art dealer, Rosen, played by John Straub, unabashed at whatever preposterous outrages he is discovered in, adorned with large horn-rimmed spectacles, and possessor of the most elegant ways of sitting.

Praise is also due Joan Ewig as Susan Haggatt, Frederick Rolf as the actor, Talant, and Preston Hanson as Bean's young pupil, Warren Creamer. George Roy Hill does well as the New York art critic, Jo Rabb tends to overplay.

The Sidney Howard play is a well-constructed lampoon of the art racket, but it is also a delightful modern Cinderella story, and a wise commentary on modern man's greed for money. The ease with which the honest, kindly country doctor turns into an unprincipled would-be thief, when $200,000 is at stake, is a bitter opinion of "honesty" in our time. It's safe to predict that "The Late Christopher Bean" will prove one of the season's most popular presentations. —J. M.

A seven-pound, 13-ounce daughter was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Seitz, 267 West Chestnut street, in Kingston Hospital. Mrs. Seitz, the former Caroline McCrery, was Society editor of The Freeman for several years. She resigned in February.

Mr. Seitz, deputy city clerk, announced that the baby had been named Holly Caroline. Mother and daughter are doing very well, he said. The baby has black hair, he said, and "looks as though she needs a haircut!"

Antique Button Pins, Earrings to Be Sold At Stone Ridge Fair

The famous hand-made "old button earrings" and pins made by Miss Katherine Hasbrouck, will be among the "many beautiful and useful articles to be on sale at the annual Stone Ridge Library Fair," the fair committee announced today. The event will be held Saturday, on the Library lawn.

There will be a large assortment of the pins and earrings, many of which "are genuine antiques and would be suitable gifts for any occasion," the committee said.

Miss Anna Budenbach will display "a fine line of hand-made aprons, which would also make gifts of distinction," the committee added.

Monroney Beats Thomas in Runoff

Oklahoma City, July 26 (AP)—Rep Mike Monroney defeated Sen. Elmer Thomas by more than 24,000 votes yesterday in Oklahoma's battle for the Democratic U. S. senatorial nomination.

The resounding defeat may have ended the political career of the white-haired Thomas, who is 73 years old and considered unlikely to attempt a comeback at a later date. He has served 24 years in the Senate.

While the 48-year-old Monroney walked off with his party's senatorial nod in the runoff primary, the Democratic governor's contest developed into such a tight affair that guards were ordered on all state ballot boxes.

With only 73 of the state's 3,788 precincts unreported in unofficial returns, Johnston Murray—son of a former governor—had 222,512 votes to 231,772 for William O. Cox. A recount was a distinct possibility, although neither side would comment.

J. O. Ferguson won the Republican nomination for governor in the July 4 primary.

In the Senate race, returns from 7,710 precincts gave Monroney 235,225 votes and Thomas 210,624.

Monroney, who served six terms in the House, will oppose the Rev. W. H. Bill Alexander, pastor of Oklahoma city's First Christian Church, the Republican nominee.

Railroad Track Is Cut At Charleroi; 27th Act

Brussels, Belgium, July 26 (AP)—The railroad track from Liege to Paris was cut during the night near Charleroi. Trains were considerably delayed.

It was the 27th sabotage action reported since King Leopold's return to Belgium on Saturday.

About 10,000 workers laid down their tools in two large metal plants in the Charleroi area.

Last night in Brussels news-reels of Leopold were booted in two theatres.

In Liege, 8,000 workers of the Cockerill steel plant left work this morning in the strike movement slowly spread to all industries in the area.

In Antwerp, where pro-Leopold demonstrations were scheduled for Thursday evening, the Socialist burgomaster banned meetings of more than five persons on the streets.

14th Annual Picnic Set by Immaculate Conception Church

The combined societies of the Immaculate Conception Church announced today that final plans have been made for the 14th annual parish picnic, which will be held this Sunday afternoon and evening, from 4 p. m. until midnight at the school grounds, Delaware avenue, rain or shine.

The committees, under the chairmanship of Valentine Skop, with George Schatzel as co-chairman, have been "working hard" the past several weeks to assure all those attending an afternoon and evening of enjoyment, the societies announced.

A buffet supper will be served from 4 p. m. Refreshments will be on sale throughout the afternoon and evening. Several booths will feature handmade articles for sale, and there will be polka and modern dancing to the music of Tony Kwamnik and his orchestra, from 6 p. m. until midnight.

The Rev. Joseph Sieczek, pastor of the church, and the committees extend an invitation to all the parishioners, their friends and the general public to participate in this annual affair.

Proceeds will go toward the new school fund. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the parish, at the rectory, 467 Delaware avenue, or at the gate next Sunday.

Y.M.C.A. Dance

Resort Is Damaged Near Marlborough

While guests at the Chillura Brothers boarding house on the Lattintown road, Marlborough, were at dinner Tuesday evening about 6:30 o'clock fire broke out in one of the buildings occupied by members of the family and also used by guests. A barking dog attracted attention to the fire and the Marlborough fire department was summoned.

The blaze was in a two story and attic frame building, which stood close to other buildings. Prompt discovery of the fire and the quick response of the Marlborough firemen who were aided by Highland firemen, confined most of the fire damage to the attic. There was considerable water damage to the lower floors. The roof and attic were considerably damaged. Firemen pumped water from a swimming pool and from a nearby brook. Cause of the fire is unknown.

State police from Highland were at the scene. Extent of damage was not estimated and it was said the guests who had been housed in the damaged building, would be taken care of in other quarters on the premises.

Good Weather Reported

Chicago, July 26 (AP)—Skies were clear and temperatures near seasonal levels over most of the nation today. The only wet spots early today were in the lower Ohio and Tennessee valleys and the western plains. The lowest readings were in the north central states. Temperatures of 105 were reported yesterday at Yuma and Phoenix, Ariz., and 102 at Fresno, Calif. Other high readings in the far west included 95 at Spokane and Boise, Ida.

Turkey Offers 4,500 Troops for Korean Campaign

Ankara, Turkey, July 26 (AP)—Turkey has offered 4,500 fully armed troops to fight the Communists in Korea.

Officials said these men would not be a token force, but a trained hard-hitting military unit. They would be equipped with American arms received under the current U. S. military aid program.

Details of transportation and assignment will be left to the United Nations.

Cuba notified the U. N. yesterday it "is disposed to discuss" sending troops to Korea. The cable to the world organization pointed out, however, that Cuba's military forces are limited.

Qualified sources in London said Britain was ready to offer a small ground force for combat in Korea. They said an important factor was British desire to let Americans know they weren't fighting alone.

Thailand has already offered 4,000 officers and men and Bolivia 30 officers.

New Zealand has decided to send an artillery combat force to fight in Korea.

Enlistment of volunteers would begin tomorrow morning. It was not immediately announced how many men the government hoped to enroll for the overseas task.

Acting Prime Minister Arthur Fadden announced today that Australia would send ground troops to aid South Korea.

Fadden said the size and composition of the force would be decided after Australia's prime minister, Robert G. Menzies, now touring the United States, confers with President Truman tomorrow.

Truffles are an important commercial crop in France and Italy.

The legislation as it now stands is a compromise of Senate and House bills worked out by a conference committee.

Agreement on the measure was reached yesterday, although the committee will meet again next Tuesday to go over a final draft.

Senator George (D-Ga.), chairman of the Senate conferees, said that unless some substantial changes are made at the last minute, the bill should be ready for the final congressional action after the Tuesday session. The House is to act on it first.

Payroll taxes under the compromise bill would be collected on annual earnings: up to $3,600 instead of $3,000 as at present.

Under the existing rate of 1 1/2 per cent on employer and employee, this would increase the maximum tax on each firm $45 to $54 a year.

The payroll tax on employer and employee alike would rise to 2 per cent in 1954, to 2 1/2 per cent in 1960, to 3 per cent in 1965 and to 3 1/2 per cent in 1970.

India's Film Industry Bombay (AP)—India's big film industry has been urged to produce for the world market as well as domestic theatres. S. K. Patil, chairman of the government's film inquiry committee, advocated this on his return from a two-month tour of Europe and the United States. He added, however, that Indian films would not be shown in America unless they met American standards and tests.

British Will Send Troops Into Korea to Back Yanks

London, July 26 (AP)—Britain announced today she has decided to send ground troops into Korea.

The British admiralty earlier disclosed plans to put the Far Eastern fleet on a "full scale war footing" immediately.

The decision to back up American G.I.s in Korea with British soldiers was made public by Defense Minister Emanuel Shinwell in the House of Commons. Shinwell told the House: "The government today notified the United Nations we are prepared to send to Korea an effective land reinforcement, including infantry, armor, artillery and engineers, together with the administrative backing required to maintain it."

The commonwealth nations of Australia and New Zealand had made similar announcements, following the lead of Turkey and Thailand (Siam).

These were to answer a United Nations appeal for soldiers to help beat off the Communist invasion of South Korea.

Two Freighters Taken From Fleet For Use Once More

New York, July 26 (AP)—Two rusty-looking freighters, removed from a "moth ball" fleet of 180 ships up the Hudson river, moved into a Brooklyn shipyard today to be refurbished for service in the Korean crisis.

A landlubber, judging from their neglected appearance probably thought it was a waste of money to recondition the Alma Victory and the Santa Clara Victory.

But what appeared to be rust on the ships was a brownish red protective coating—an oil base preservative with an oxide pigment.

Across the Hudson river in Hoboken, N. J., advancing work on two other victory ships disclosed the protection given the vessels by the oily substance, called consol.

One hundred men were at work on each of these craft the Queens Victory and the Belgium Victory.

The four ships are among 20 freighters undergoing the same treatment at various yards throughout the country. In addition the navy is refurbishing 12 troopships in its own yards.

Reservists Hear About Korea and Production

A regular meeting of the 9267 Volunteer Air Reserve Training Squadron was held Tuesday evening in the American Legion building.

Major Edward V. DeGroff spoke on the world production and consumption of oil and the development of synthetic fuels.

Major Theodore R. Lee commanding officer, reviewed the Korean situation and its probable effect on air reservists.

Reservists are reminded that the minimum tour of active duty is for one year, unless the world situation warrants earlier release, and that the federal government guarantees them full re-employment rights.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, August 8, Lieut. George L. Kenney, public relations officer, announced.

Traffic Signs
Woodstock, July 26 Kenneth Wilson, town supervisor, had received a letter dated July 20 from R. C. George, director of the State Traffic Commission in Albany stating that safety signs and cross-walk markings will be placed by the same three musicians, Mme. Jacqueline Marcault, William Kiohl and Cynthia Lidy, who drew a record audience two weeks ago. The audience on that occasion was warmly appreciative and many wore the prizes and requests for another performance by these players—three of the nation's top musicians.

Mme. Marcault and Mr. Kiohl will play Tchaikovsky's Sonata opus 13 for violin and piano, Allegro molto, Andante, Allegro vivo (Allegro quasi presto) and Mrs. Eddy will join them in Schubert's B flat Trio, Allegro moderato, Andante un poco mosso, Scherzo, Ronde.

There will again be an exhibition of the collection of photographs of musicians who have appeared on programs at the Maxfield concert since their beginning 35 years ago.

Woodstock, July 26 Kenneth Wilson, town supervisor, had received a letter dated July 20 from R. C. George, director of the State Traffic Commission in Albany stating that safety signs and cross-walk markings will be placed by the same three musicians, Mme. Jacqueline Marcault, William Kiohl and Cynthia Lidy, who drew a record audience two weeks ago. The audience on that occasion was warmly appreciative and many wore the prizes and requests for another performance by these players—three of the nation's top musicians.

WOODSTOCK NEWS

By RICHARD E. THIBAUT, JR.

Artists and Writers To Play August 6

Woodstock, July 26—During a meeting held at the home of John Striebel last week plans were made for the annual Artists and Writers Baseball Game. The date for the event will be August 6 and the game will start at 2 p. m. at the Woodstock Recreation Field.

Present at the planning session were Kenneth Wilson, town supervisor, Walter Van Wagenen, superintendent of schools, John Striebel, chairman of the game committee, John Pike, associate chairman, Wilma Harvey, Fritz Striebel, Dave Hurline and George Hard.

Funds raised will be devoted to reducing this year's deficit in the recreation field's funds.

Fifth Concert Slated In Series on Sunday

Woodstock, July 26—The fifth concert in the series of 10 at the Maverick will be played Sunday.

Ponies Ready for Library Fair

The little folks attending the Woodstock Library Fair Thursday will be able to play Hopalong Cassidy through the courtesy of James McCabe who operates a pony concession at Eight Acres on Route 28, a mile over the Washington avenue viaduct. McCabe's ponies will be at the fair for the enjoyment of the youngsters. From left are Dr. Paul Perlman chairman of the fair pony rides concession, Preston Perlman and Coxy Miller in wagon and Bill Andrews, McCabe's ranch foreman. (Freeman Photo)

Financial and Commercial

New York, July 26 (AP)—A brisk rally, sparked by a sudden advance in radio-television stocks, lifted the market out of a morning decline today.

The rally carried leading shares to net gains of as much as $2 or so a share before dying down. Earlier the market had swung down by as much.

The recovery move was accompanied by a revival of rumors—completely without any verifiable basis—that Russia had, or would, make a dramatic offer for peace in Korea. Such rumors have circulated before in Wall street as a breeding ground for inside information which often turns out to be inaccurate or false.

Even the motors joined in the rally after sagging for days under steady pressure. The autos, however, had trouble hanging on to their new-found gains.

The President's tax proposals had no obvious effect on price trends, the proposal was available to the market yesterday although not announced officially until after the close.

Offers to Resign

New York, July 26 (AP)—Brooklyn Borough President John Cashmore has offered to resign as Kings county (Brooklyn) Democratic leader if the party district leaders would name County Clerk Francis J. Sinnott a Cashmore aide to succeed him as Brooklyn leader.

Sinnott was quoted as saying he would resign if named to succeed William O'Dwyer, who has been seeking to have Cashmore ousted as leader in the state's biggest Democratic county.

Auto Output 4,350,000

Detroit, July 26 (AP)—So far this year approximately 4,350,000 cars and trucks have rolled from the auto industry's assembly lines.

That's nearly a million more vehicles than were built in the same period of last year, but what happens to production during the remainder of this year is surrounded by a lot of uncertainty. Some industry sources say the real effect of materials allocation will not be felt by the auto makers until early in 1951.

SOPHIE MILLER

Was just given an item from the "Times-Union," which copied a timely war item from "The Albany Times and Courier" of 1863 at which time a draft was permitted to furnish a substitute if he wished. "The paper of substitutes has risen with the brief period, and although there are exceptions, yet it requires from $225 upward to procure acceptable one." I hardly be-that time, as high as $1,000 paid for a draft certificate. It was told by one whose grandfather's brother was so defrauded.

To those who remember the Barnum brewery and good beer produced here in the early 1900's, the "Kingston" of the plant in "Kingsington" issued by the Greater Board of Trade in 1906, says in part:

"Peter Barnum, bottler of beer of lager beer, also brewer is being maintained by the city on a foot of Clinton avenue. also recommended by the medical profession. The plant consists of two principal buildings, one of which contains 75 feet in dimensions with three stories and a building 50 by 125 feet, also two stories. Some 30 are employed with an output of 100 barrels a day.

Who remembers "Near By" of the previous after war years? It said by local old timers that when they started drinking around with beer' they ruined for good and it never came back to its old-fashioned nourishment.

Chez Emile Shades Jones Dairy, 2-1, to Take Lead in City League

Lindhurst's Homer Decides Key Contest

Paterson Silk Sox, Mt. Vernon at Stadium Saturday

The City Baseball League has a new leader for the first time in weeks today.

Chez Emile, and more specifically Artie Barnes and Big Ray Lindhurst, nosed out Jones Dairy, 2-1, in a thrilling brawl that wound up with a display of amateur fistfights, yesterday at the Athletic Field.

Lindhurst clouted a two-run homer over the left field fence in the first inning and that was enough margin to give Barnes a shade over Tommy Fisher, Dairy ace who permitted only three hits.

Virtual Tie

The victory left Chez Emile with a percentage margin lead over Jones Dairy in the standings, although in games won and lost the clubs are theoretically tied.

Chez Emile has won 7 and lost 2, while the Dairy have an 8-3 record. Old Capital Motors has 7-3, and Bowdoin and Boulevard Gulf both 6-3. Thus only one game separates the first five teams in the "heat" column.

Barnes was nicked for eight hits, including a trio by Tommy Carlinio, but he was superb in the clutch. He showed his mettle in the second inning when Jones Dairy scored a run on Charlie Neff's walk and three infield singles by Johnny Schatzel, George Zadan and Rod Whitaker.

Great in Clutch

This created a situation of one run, in, bases empty and out and a big inning threatening. Barnes solved the dilemma by fanning Fisher and getting little Johnny Berardi to tap into a double play.

Jones loaded the bases again in the seventh with two out and this time Barnes induced the dangerous Charlie Neff to sky to right field for the third out. On another occasion Joe Shattan saved his pitcher some trouble by collaring Rod Whitaker's hot smash over second with Charlie Neff on third base for the final out.

Rhubarb Threatens

Fisher was terrific after the first inning, yielding only scattered singles to George Glasier and Johnny Veritas. He walked three times, fanned five, while Barnes doled out three passes and struck out four.

The fistfights occurred in the Jones seventh when Ted Schwamb, a pitcher, ran for Tommy Fisher and banged into George Glasier at second base on a D situation. Glasier was momentarily kayoed and the incident touched off a rhubarb that threatened to develop into a wild swinging affair involving the personnel of both teams. It soon resolved into a typical baseball fight, however, and order was restored after a few innocuous swings. Nobody got chased.

Louis Hints Bout With Charles

Detroit, July 26 (AP)—Former heavyweight champion Joe Louis confided to friends here last night he was hopeful of arranging a title bout with Ezzard Charles in September.

Louis re-iterated, however, that all depended on how his negotiations turn out with the U. S. Revenue Bureau in Washington on an income tax adjustment.

It was reported last week that Louis is attempting to make a deal with the government to accept his purse from the proposed Ezzard Charles bout in full settlement of an income tax claim.

Meanwhile, the former champion saw the Detroit Tigers-Boston Red Sox baseball game here tonight and then set out by train for Chicago. He plans to play in the All-American golf tournament at Tam O'Shanter and then go to West Baden, Ind., to take mineral baths.

Friends said Louis wanted to take the baths to get his weight down. He now weighs between 220 and 225 pounds and would have to take off from 10 to 15 pounds to get into fighting trim.

New Bedford, Mass.—Frankie Fay, 142½, New Bedford, outpointed Tommy Clarno, 145, Waterbury, Conn., 10.

Wiltwyck Golfers Plan 'Men's Night'

The second in a series of weekly "Men's Night" programs will be conducted at Wiltwyck Golf Club Thursday evening starting at 5 p. m. A buffet supper will follow the various golf events at approximately 8:30 p. m.

All members interested are asked to sign up at the club.

Koepeke Retains Swimming Lead

Karl Koepeke leads the field with 100 points at the end of the second week of competition in the Williams Lake swimming contest.

Dolores Garlick has come along with a rush to place second with 93 points, while Edward Williams' 88 points give him third place.

Fred Dippel, athletic director at Williams Lake and his assistant, Merle Thorpe, are in charge of the program that is doing exceptionally well. Already most of the class of 20 has learned to swim at least a few strokes, and two of the group—Margaret Osterhout and Frank Lyons—have been taken into deep water.

Annual Races

The program will close on August 20, with the 15th annual trophy meet, sanctioned by the A. A. U. and featuring the American Legion race, a 100 yard freestyle swim for men of Ulster county for the American Legion trophy and county title. The female championship will be decided in the Kiwanis Trophy race, a 50 yard free-style event.

The standings to date in the swim contest: Karl Koepeke 100; Dolores Garlick 93; Edward Williams 88; Eugene Temple 55; Joseph Garlick 39; Anita Williams 38; James Rudigan 30; Peter Cassin 23.

Also, Joe Bittell 18; Kevin Kile 17; Austin Troy 16; Charles Sweeney 14; Bob Hicks 11; Kenneth Dunn 5; Rita Halligan 1.

Pep Confident He Can Repeat

Washington, July 26 (AP)—Smooth-operating Willie Pep, the major domo of the featherweight division, says he thinks he can kick ex-champ Sandy Saddler if the two have a third time.

Pep made the observation in his dressing room after polishing off Bobby Bell of Youngstown, Ohio, in a ten-round decision at Griffith Stadium last night.

Negotiations are continuing to-day in New York to line up a "tubby" bout between the two little 128-pounders for a Sept. 6 outing at Yankee Stadium, estimated to gross $300,000.

The Pep-Saddler classic hinges on the demands of Lou Viscusi, Pep's manager. It was learned that he had asked for a $100,000 guarantee for the champ and a privilege of 40 per cent of the gate.

Saddler won the first bout with Pep on a knockout, Oct. 29, 1928. Four months later Pep recaptured the title on a decision.

The SARAZEN SWING

Warm Up, Not Practice, Before Play; Eager Beavers Are Muscularly Tired

Another of a series written for NEA Service By GENE SARAZEN Winner of THEM ALL

In my tours, I have observed that less than one per cent of golfers know how to practice correctly.

At every club there is a group of over-eager beavers who bang hundreds of balls down the practice fairway and are muscularly tired before they actually tee off.

You've got to be fresh to play good golf.

Ben Hogan is the one player who has, or had before his horrible accident the mental and physical stamina to play his best after expending maximum power and concentration in practice.

A player should warm up, not practice. At my age, to conserve energy, my warm-up consists of 15 or 20 shots with a six or seven iron on which I check my timing; four or five drives to unlimber my other muscles and then five minutes or so on the practice green.

It does no good to practice after a round when you are feeling tired, or at any time when your coordination is worn down.

Do not practice all the clubs in the bag indiscriminately. Concentrate on the club you were playing the poorest on your preceding round.

If your irons need attention, do not succumb to the lure of practicing your woods, your best shots, just because there are a few friends watching on the porch of the clubhouse.

Golfers who are old enough to know better are 70-golfers with their woods and 78-golfers with their irons and will always remain so since they cannot resist impressing the spectators on the practice ground with their exceptional length with the woods.

BEER-TOSSING CAUSES FRACAS AT BALL GAME

Police and Catcher Guy Wellman of the visiting St. Paul baseball team jumped into the stands at a St. Paul player who was approaching his dugout. Two spectators were arrested on charges of drunkenness as a result of the interruption. (AP Wirephoto)

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland's rampaging Indians, looking more menacing each day, loom as the real "dark horse" in the jumbled American League pennant race.

No club in the league—and that includes the pace-setting Detroit Tigers and runner-up New York Yankees—has looked better than Lou Boudreau's men, who have run up 12 triumphs in their last 16 games.

Whereas three weeks ago, the Indians trailed the Tigers by seven full games, they are now only two and a half games out today. Thanks to a 7-6 triumph over Philadelphia last night while both the Tigers and Yankees were losing, the Indians find themselves in the best position they've been all year.

Feller Wins Tenth

Feller was the winner yesterday although he needed help from Lemon in the ninth. It was Bob's 10th triumph of the year. He got a big lift from Easter, who smashed his 18th and 19th homers off loser Alex Kellner.

The Red Sox won a 7-6 nip-and-tuck affair from Detroit, scoring three runs in the eighth off Relief Pitcher Hal White to overcome a 6-4 deficit. Three runs in each of the fifth and seventh innings had nabbed the Tigers to overcome an early 4-0 Boston lead. Each club used four pitchers, with Chuck Stobbs the winner and White the loser.

Stubby Overmire pitched the St. Louis Browns to a 4-3 victory over the Yankees. The little left-hander, who holds two of the three Browns wins over New York, had a three-hit shutout until the ninth. Four hits, including a two-run homer by Johnny Mize, gave the Yankees three runs. Overmire batted in what proved to be the winning run with a two-run single off Vic Raschi in the fifth.

Fine relief pitching by Joe Haynes and strong stickwork by Sam Mele and Gil Coan helped Washington triumph over the Chicago White Sox, 7-4.

Phils Back on Top

Philadelphia's Phillies moved back to the top of the National League by handing the Chicago Cubs two shutout defeats, 7-0 and 1-0. Bubba Church hurled a three-hitter in the opener and Robin Roberts followed with a six-hitter. It was the latter's 12th triumph, Johnny Klippstein and Bob Rush were the victims.

The Cubs now have suffered through three straight shutout losses. They were beaten, 3-0, in the second game of Sunday's doubleheader with the New York Giants.

The Phils' double win put them a half game in front of the St. Louis Cardinals, who whipped the Brooklyn Dodgers, 9-5. The Boston Braves moved into the third spot, two and a half games off the pace, by thrashing the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-2, as Johnny Sain pitched his 13th success of the season.

A five-run eighth inning and another rally in the ninth on Bob Usher's error gave the Giants a 7-6 triumph over Cincinnati.

Paced by Del Ennis' 18th home run with two mates aboard, the Phils were an easy victor in the opener. They had to wait until two were out in the last of the ninth to win the second game.

Richie Ashburn took care of that, lashing a single to center to score Ralph Cahallero from second.

Del Rice's three-run homer highlighted a four-run eighth inning which enabled the Cards to overcome a 5-3 Dodger lead. It marked the first St. Louis win in Ebbetts Field this year.

The Cards' Stan Musial cracked a home run, double and single to extend his consecutive hitting streak through 29 games.

pointed Jesus Campos, 124½, New York, 10.

Trotters, Exhibits At Dutchess Fair

Rhinebeck—Eight harness races have been scheduled for the annual Dutchess county fair to be held at Springbrook Park, here August 29—September 2.

Frank Cookingham, race secretary, said today that the harness racing program will open with two stake races Tuesday August 29, while three races will be run Wednesday, August 30 and Thursday, August 31.

While the entries for the harness fixtures have not yet been filed, Mr. Cookingham already has promises of some fast pacers and trotters who have been winning regularly at Roosevelt Raceway. He also hopes to have a good representation of horses from the Hudson valley and Connecticut areas to give fairgoers three days of well-balanced exciting races. Each race will consist of two heats. Starting time will be 2 p. m.

Plans also are under way for a one-day local horse show as a part of the fair. Malcolm Grahame and Homer Gray, both of the Rombout Hunt club, will have charge of the show.

Mrs. Deborah Dows, Rhinebeck, again will have charge of the one day pony show.

Still another sporting feature of the country's five day fair will be a wildlife exhibit under the sponsorship of the Northern Dutchess Sportsmen's Club. The Rhinebeck amateurs are doing a good job of providing area wildlife for the show. They hope to have the cooperation of the State Conservation department again, thus assuring a well-balanced entertaining and educational exhibit.

Leon Randall in Fourth Place Tie With 81 in State Junior Golf

Olcan Led's 78
Paces 45 Entries

An Olcan golfer whom Leon Randall shaded for second place honors in the New York State Junior golf tournament last year at James Baird Park in Poughkeepsie, led the field of 45 entries at the halfway mark of the 1950 event yesterday at the Orchard Park Country Club in Buffalo.

Eighteen-year-old Gene Eylet, a veteran competitor in state junior circles, carded a six-over par 78 for a one stroke lead at the end of 18 holes. He solved Orchard Park's 6301 yards of up and down hill trudging with a pair of 39s.

Eylet headed into the final round today closely pursued by William Grygiel Jr. of Utica and Earl Skiff of Schenectady. Grygiel and Skiff had first round 79s.

Randall Shot 81
Randall, of Wiltwyck, last year's runnerup and a pre-tournament favorite, was in a fourth place tie at 81 with Jimmy Campbell of Buffalo. Randall and Campbell had identical rounds of 40-41-81.

John Moynihan Jr. of Troy, another favorite, found the lack of local practice cost him strokes as he posted an 83.

Charlie Bostic, another of the Wiltwyck contingent, way six strokes off the pace with 42-42-84. The top seven finishers in the 36-hole medal play event will be eligible for the national tourney to be sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Aug. 14-19 at Ames, Iowa.

Get It Hole-In-One

Back at 87 was Don Kay of Niagara Falls, who doesn't have much chance for the title and, furthermore, probably doesn't need it. The 18-year-old Kay got all the kicks he could stand by hitting a tournament hole-in-one.

It came on the 175-yard second hole with a four-iron.

The first round leaders:

Gene Eylet, Olcan, 39-39-78.

William Grygiel Jr., Utica, 42-37-79.

Earl Skiff, Schenectady, 41-38-79.

John Reilly, Albany, 42-38-80.

Ken Faust, Poughkeepsie, 42-38-80.

David Law, Olcan, 40-40-80.

Ed Dinga, Endicott, 38-42-80.

Leon Randall, Kingston, 40-41-81.

Jimmy Campbell, Buffalo, 40-41-81.

Bob Impic, Buffalo, 41-41-82.

Chris Sarto, Jamestown, 42-40-82.

Charles Bostic, Kingston, 42-42-84.

John Carpenter, Albany, 43-43-86.

Don Kay, Niagara Falls, 43-42-87.

Gerald Schneider, Buffalo, 45-43-88.

Gene Taylor, Utica, 45-45-90.

SPORTS

By CHARLES J. TIANO
Freeman Sports Editor

This week's issue of "The Sporting News," the Bible of organized baseball, dedicates the usual front page cartoon to the demise of the Colonial Baseball League.

Willard Mullin, the crack World-Telly cartoonist, shows a giant hurler, "Major League Television" pouring a third strike past a batter entitled "Colonial League." The tired-looking old character representing the Colonial League must have swiped his uniform from Father Knickerbocker.

In the "on deck" circle, Mullin has placed a group of players known as "The Rest of the Minors" and they're all shaking and trembling. Their turn may come next . . . anytime.

There will be others to follow the Colonial League before the 1950 campaign winds up. Major league television and lack of civic interest will crush more than one team ere Labor Day rolls around. In our book, the principal reason is lack of community interest. If a league or team, no matter how good or bad, cannot sell itself to the public, it dies.

Bill Butler, of the Waterbury Republican, noted with a sardonic touch that it took a battle-scarred, 23-passenger bus belonging to the Waterbury Timers to help drive the final spike in the coffin of the Colonial League.

The second-hand bus, Butler writes, has figured in many exciting episodes since it was purchased from an independent transportation company.

In April 1949, the bus was carrying a load of players from Washington, D. C., to Mahanoy City, Pa., when the mechanical system failed on a steep grade outside Harrisburg, Pa. The vehicle sped, out of control, for nearly half a mile before the driver, Dick Pistavelli, then a catcher with the team, was able to bring it to a stop at the top of an embankment.

Several of the players were shaken up but none was injured. This mishap brought a sudden end to the club's spring barnstorming trip, which started in Wilmington, N. C. Several other times during the training trip that spring the bus broke down.

Later in the 1949 season, the brakes failed on a trip to Stamford for a league game. The quick action of two players, who rushed to the aid of the struggling driver, kept the vehicle from overturning on the highway.

On another occasion the club's business manager was forced to lie prone on his stomach for 90 miles to hold a couple of wires together so the bus could return the players to their hotel.

Earlier this year the brakes failed again on a grade outside of Waterbury and many exciting moments passed before the driver regained control of the vehicle.

After this trip, several of the players requested and received permission to use their own private cars for road trips. Then, of course, came the strike of players who refused to ride in that same bus from Kingston back to Waterbury after a scheduled night game. The Timers didn't mind being taken for a ride but when the bus started acting up like a plane, they figured it was time to take a powder.

The Colonial League is dead, but how can you ever forget such quaint characters as Mario Perez, the Puerto Rican that Ted Laviano pulled off a banana boat, installed at third base, and gave him an average instead of a glove. . . . How beautifully he could wave at those hot drives over the bag! . . . Laviano himself, who posed with Napoleonic grandeur on the municipal stadium ramp trying to dream customers through the turnstiles. . . . Don "Digger" Odell, the colorful outfielder who always touched first and second base in succession en route to his garden post. . . . "High Harry" Bedell, a 1-3 performer, who thrilled nearly 3,000 spectators with a victory over the league-leading Port Chester, nine, the night Laviano's bedraggled tossers came to Kingston from New Brunswick, N. J., where the average attendance was about 37. . . . Francisco "Jack" Gostre, who could develop a sore arm at the drop of the bat. . . . or almost the moment he saw a certain redhead in the stands. . . . Max Goldsmith, who could chase a foul tip like a bird dog. . . . Hammerin' Eddie Kobesky, Paul Dunlop, former International League batting champion, who looked like Ed "Chief" Leonard, ran like the Chief and almost hit as well as our Chief did in his heyday. They were characters the likes of which we'll probably never see again.

If we may terminate this opus on a crude note . . . where were all the "old semi-pro fans" Saturday night?

Favorites Advance in Wiltwyck Golf; Holcomb and Daley Reach Third Round

Favorites advanced through the winners bracket in the championship flight of the annual Wiltwyck Golf Club tournament, while two others scored victories in second round play.

Dr. Fred Holcomb, Jr., tournament medalist, eliminated Stan Winne, 4 and 2, and then moved into third round with a 3 and 2 conquest of Dr. George Riftenbary.

Defending champion Leon Randall got a stiff battle from Ike Trowbridge before winning 2 and 1.

Former champion Bill Van Aken flattened Ben Cohen, 7 and 6 while long-hitting Clarence "Dubby" Rachtke beat Hank York, 2 and 1. Louis G. Bruhn, the D. A. squeezed by George Schick, 1 up while Joe "Kukums" Kwansky prevailed over Doug Kennedy by a similar margin.

Two former club champions—J. Watson Bailey and Maurice Davenport—came through unscathed. Bailey trounced Jim Winters, 3 and 2, and Davenport trounced W. R. McClements, 4 and 3.

Dick Davenport, one of the K. H. S. "victoria" polished off veteran Ray LeFevre, 5 and 3.

Greeks Get U. S. Mules

Athens (AP)—An additional shipment of 6,000 American mules will bring to 13,500 the number of the animals brought to Greece, and used in the country's agriculture recovery program. Purchased with Marshall Plan funds, the mules are expected to reach Greece this year. Cost of the animals and transportation costs will run close to $3,400,000.

Stops Opera Cold

Vienna, (AP)—A heckler's comment during a recent performance of "Aida" brought squads of Hungarian political police to the Budapest state opera house and interrupted the performance for nearly two hours, according to reports reaching Vienna. When Aida sang the line, "Rhodames, Rhodames, where are you?" someone in the audience shouted, "at the Communist party night school, of course."

The roaring laughter stopped instantly when the political police arrived. Everyone in the building was questioned before the opera was allowed to proceed.

IS KINGSTON NO LONGER A PART of the UNITED STATES?

We have fought and died in this country to preserve democracy, to uphold the belief that the will of the majority should prevail.

Why, then, should we permit this principle to be ignored? The voters of the City of Kingston, last Fall, by a two to one majority, defeated every public housing project on the ballot.

Why, since the Councilmen elected to our Common Council have sworn a sacred oath to represent the wishes and opinions of their voters, do they insist on trying to ram through a public housing project on which we have already said, "NO!"

It is your duty, as a public spirited citizen, to appear at the Public Hearing at the City Hall, TONIGHT at 7:30 P. M. — and tell the Council AGAIN that we as taxpayers cannot stand another tax increase for another unwanted and unneeded piece of foolishness!

Johnson Strikes

and above those committed to the Korean campaign.

3. In Korea, it "is a battle of supply and the distances involved are great. As a result, we must expect difficult problems and slow progress."

Johnson's prepared text made no direct reference to criticism voiced in some congressional quarters about the condition of American military strength as a result of Pentagon policies. But it was plain the statement was intended as a reply to that criticism.

Johnson said the military establishment "is a sounder mobilization base than any the United States has ever had before," that there now is closely knit team of land, naval and air forces.

"The swift decisions during the past four weeks to coordinate the combat efforts of the army, navy and air force in the Far East are striking examples of the benefits of unification in an emergency," he said.

Fleet Activity Cited
Asserting that "the overall combat potential of our armed forces was at a higher level on June 25—the day the republic of Korea was invaded—than had been the case any time since post-war demobilization was completed," Johnson added:

"In the case of the navy, what the fleet is doing today would not have been possible two years ago. In March of 1948, there were 111 vessels of the active fleet immobilized and 66 reduced to limited operations (or a total of 177) by insufficient personnel."

"This situation was also one of the factors which has led the Department of Defense to advocate a greater fighting strength for each ship, and on June 25, when the republic of Korea was invaded, every ship was capable of getting underway and moving into action. Off the shores of Korea, we are being provided with daily illustrations of the readiness of the ships in our active fleet."

Johnson said of the air force that "there has been a substantial increase in our actual combat potential."

His presentation of the army's picture was this:
"In March of 1948, the army's budgeted strength for the current fiscal year was $30,000, prior to the supplemental request which the President submitted to Congress yesterday. In addition to this increase in numbers, there has been a further increase arising out of the fact that proportionately more men are now in combat units and proportionately less men in non-combat categories."

Structural Steel and Ironworkers Union, was elected at last night's meeting in the old Opera House building on Fair street.

This member of the Ulster County Marine Corps League was honored with the presidency of the group because of his longtime stand in favor of housing.

"I consider it a great honor and privilege," he said, "to head this organization of sound and lasting character, formed to foster and promote things of a progressive nature for the city of Kingston."

"Housing is one of the prime factors in the advancement of any community; lack of it here can be credited in no small measure with keeping Kingston in the same bracket it was 10 years ago, according to recent census figures."

"Without proper housing, it is useless to make any bids for industry to come to Kingston. Workers have no places to live."

"Judging from experiences after the boys came back from World War 2," Melville pointed out, "servicemen in the present conflict will need homes to raise families when they are finished on the battlefields and return to a normal course of life."

"Let's not ask them to face any more problems such as a housing shortage that we can take care of while they are away risking their lives for us," he said.

"There's enough opposition to things American by our Communist enemies," he added. "It is up to us to see that the interests of our growing generation, along with our fighting forces, are taken care of."

"Kingston needs this housing project much as any of the other cities in the state where they have been erected and are a great relief to the lower income earners."

"Poughkeepsie has a project underway, through the cooperation of the two major political parties, and I hope that the same procedure will be followed here."

Melville was one of the staunch supporters of a previous housing project proposal and spoke in its favor at a public hearing in the municipal auditorium.

Navy Puts 48 Ships At Sea, Vinson Says

Washington, July 26 (AP)—

The Navy is putting a total of 48 more war ships at sea, including three large and six light aircraft carriers, two cruisers, 32 destroyers and five submarines.

This was announced today by Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House Armed Services Committee.

The announcement, which included other increases for the Navy and Marines, was made after a closed-door meeting of the Armed Services Committee.

This committee is probing in to how well prepared each service is and what their plans are, not only in the Korean crisis but to stem possible Communist aggression elsewhere.

Big Bomb Is Removed

Berlin, July 26 (AP)—British engineers inched a 1,000-pound World War 2 bomb away from its resting place near the Russian war memorial today and blew it up.

The Russian war memorial was damaged. The Russians said tanks exploded left a 10-foot deep crater in the Tiergarten and scattered a cloud of dust across the Brandenburg gate into the Soviet sector. Workmen restoring the park found the big dud with their shovels Sunday. After three days of discussion with the Russians, it was finally agreed that the bomb could be moved 200 yards away where it could be exploded without causing damage to the memorial. Special precautions had to be taken in the moving because the bomb had a damaged fuse which might have exploded it prematurely.

North Koreans . . .

described the fighting, in which the Americans fell back east of Yongdong. The withdrawal was reported not heavy.

The Reds also hit the right side, but were thrown back with heavy losses. Planes and ground troops knocked out six of eight enemy tanks.

Then the commanding general decided to regroup the U. S. forces last night a few hundred yards east of the line to give the defenders better positions.

But the enemy again struck the American right flank at 5 p. m. and fought on after dark in the first night attack of the war. There was a little enemy artillery fire. The infantry then came swarming through the mountains around the flanks of the unit.

At 1:30 o'clock this morning the North Koreans attacked the American left flank which was in the process of drawing back.

The major said this was the drive led by four tanks herding the U. S. combatants before them. The bridge had been mined by the Americans and they would have blown it up otherwise.

"The Americans just couldn't open fire on those women and children," Witherspoon said.

This gave the tanks a chance to come in close and open direct fire on the American positions.

Fortunately, the Americans began late yesterday pulling their artillery back and getting heavy equipment toward the rear.

A hollow rubber ball cut in two, punctured and shoved over the handle of a paint brush, will prevent paint drippings from oozing back.

Morse Lines Up...

majority of Senate Republicans, declined to say whether he feels that McCarthy's charges are "a fraud and a hoax"—the conclusion reached by the Democratic members of a Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee which investigated the charges.

But I am still waiting for the proof of the charges," Morse said. Morse played a key role in the case of "Mr. X" which McCarthy outlined to the Senate yesterday. McCarthy asserted he had airtight proof that an important State Department official—described only as "X" by the senator—was a Communist.

To back up his contention, McCarthy read from a purported loyalty file on the man that document quoted an F.B.I. agent as saying that an undercover agent for the F.B.I. had named "X" as a Communist, along with the man's wife.

Senator McMahon (D-Conn.), a member of the inquiry committee, announced to the Senate that he had learned the identity of "X" and had obtained from the man 21 affidavits attesting to his loyalty. McMahon indicated the affidavits were part of the loyalty file of "X."

Still without naming the man, McMahon said one of the affidavits had been signed by Morse in October, 1948.

Morse, after examining the affidavit, announced he was going to name "Mr. X"—that as long as his own name had been brought into the case he was going to make all the facts known.

Morse then read the affidavit, which disclosed that Poniak was "X." Morse, the affidavit said, knew Poniak from 1936 to 1938 when he worked in the Justice Department, where Morse then was assistant to the attorney general. Morse said the affidavit vouched for Poniak's loyalty then and that he had not laid eyes on the man since 1938. At that time, Morse added, Poniak gave no indication that he had any sympathy for communism. Morse said it would be "a great surprise to me" if Poniak had subsequently developed such sympathy.

Poniak is in the State Department's eastern European branch, at a salary of between $7,800 and $8,600 a year.

Trud Reports Casualties

Moscow, July 26 (AP)—A dispatch from Korea to the newspaper Trud said today more than 1,500 Americans were killed and over 200 taken prisoner in the battle for Yongdong Trud, the trade union organ, quoted foreign newspapers as saying American armies were seeking to hold on in the mountains about 50 miles west of Taegu. It said U. S. troops will also try to dig in along the Naktong river.

The answers to everyday insurance problems
By HERMAN J. EATON

QUESTION: What items should be considered in arriving at the total amount of their insurance which should be carried? We read in the papers about burglars who back a moving van up to a house when the owners are away and simply take everything but it seems foolish to pay the premium on a big insurance policy when the chances of something like that happening are so very slight.

ANSWER: You should make a careful inventory of all items to be insured against theft and include all things which are valuable and which could be easily carried away. Watches, jewelry, clothing, cameras, sports equipment, typewriters and radios are good examples.

* If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be NO CHARGE OR OBLIGATION OR ANY KIND.

Baruch Asks Mobilization Of United States Economy

Washington, July 26 (AP)—Elder Statesman Bernard Baruch today called for all-out economic mobilization of the United States with a quick freeze on prices, wages and rents.

"Events have left us no choice," he said. "We have to mobilize." Baruch, the government's mobilization advisor in two World Wars, urged quick action in testimony before the Senate Banking Committee.

The senators are weighing a bill to give President Truman limited wartime controls in the present emergency. These would not include price control of any kind.

Baruch's recommendations included—but went far beyond—the President's requests. Baruch referred to his former calls for economic mobilization. These led to differences between him and President Truman. Baruch has taken the position that the President was not doing enough for preparedness.

"Our aim should be to organize the nation so that every factory and farm, every man, every dollar, every bit of material can be put to use where it will strengthen our defenses and fill the most essential needs first," Baruch told the committee.

"There should be equal treatment for all. All demands should be kept in balance."

"All Resources"
"I propose that we organize ourselves—all our resources of men, money, materials and morale—so that whatever happens—new aggressions abroad, possible destruction at home—whatever happens, the armed forces can get what they need, when they need it."

Cigarette Prices Rise
Winston Salem, N. C., July 26 (AP)—Carnel and Cavalier cigarettes rose in price today from $7.75 to $8 a thousand. For the pack-a-day smoker, this means an extra cost of about three cents a week, or slightly less than half cent a pack. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, maker of the cigarettes, said the increase was "due to increased costs, particularly in leaf tobacco, which on southern markets is averaging substantially above the 1949 market."

Shutdown Is Canceled
Baltimore, July 26 (AP)—The Glenn L. Martin Company said today it has canceled its plant-wide vacation shutdown at the request of the Defense Department to speed up work on military airplanes. Martin's 3,700 employees had been scheduled to go on their two-week vacations Saturday. The announcement did not specify what work will be speeded up.

Urges Other Measures
In addition to priorities and price freeze, Baruch urged a number of other measures.

These included anti-profiteering taxes by the second half of this year; rent controls with a provision for justifiable increases; a mobilization agency to synchronize American efforts; postponement of less essential spending; both public and private, strengthening of the United Nations in the common defense of peace, and speedier assistance in rearming Allied nations.

"It is the choice of 'peace' or 'butter' of mobilizing our strength now, while peace can still be saved, or of clinging to petty wants and petty profits, imperiling our freedom and our civilization."

Senator Maybank (D-S.C.), chairman of the committee, said he expects Congress to give the President whatever controls are necessary for the present emergency.
